D&H

OUR EXPERIENCED TEAM provides our clients with personalized tax and accounting services because we truly care about our clients' success. As a locally-owned and managed firm, we know the importance of advice based on an in-depth understanding of our clients' needs coupled with the latest developments in tax and accounting.

WHO WE ARE D&H Group LLP, Chartered Professional Accountants, is a B.C. Limited Liability Partnership of Corporations founded over 60 years ago as Dyke & Howard. Today, we are a full-service firm of Chartered Professional Accountants with clients throughout British Columbia and Western Canada servicing national and international clientele in cooperation with our associations:

BHD™ – An Association of Independent Accounting Firms located across Canada

IAPA – An Association of Independent Accounting Firms located Internationally

We offer tax and accounting services to a wide range of clients including private and family businesses, public companies, First Nations organizations, and not-for-profit organizations.

WHAT WE DO Our expertise and experience allow us to design and deliver professional advice backed up by a range of specific services and deliverables that help you meet your taxation and financial reporting requirements. We are more than a list of services and we can help you with a range of issues from payroll calculations and bookkeeping to financial statement audits and corporate reorganizations.

We believe in actively communicating with our clients throughout the year, as well as during the annual preparation of financial statements and tax returns.

Our approach enables us to:

- Attain an in-depth knowledge of our clients' business goals and objectives.
- Facilitate the provision of practical, timely, and proactive professional services
- Strengthen our working relationships

D&H Group LLP is committed to an ongoing and formal program to develop the technical expertise of every person in our Firm. This commitment, vital in the rapidly changing world of income tax, assurance, accounting, and information technology, ensures our continued provision of exceptional, up-to-date, professional accounting services.
